These two boxes allow you to navigate back to the previous view (if you used a link to “click” to a new location in the Ordinance) and to go forward, after having gone to a previous page.

Any language in the body of the document in BLUE ink is a “clickable” hyperlink. In most cases, the link goes to a Definition or a Section or Article within the Ordinance. In the Table of Contents, every listed Section is a clickable link that takes the reader directly to the related provisions.

These margin “boxes” are links that appear on every page. They can take you directly to the Summary Table of Contents, which provides a “hub” for navigating the Articles and Sections of the Ordinance. The Articles were organized and grouped in this manner to separate primary content areas for ease of use and navigation.

These footer “boxes” are links that appear on every page. They can take you directly to the primary Table of Contents, to the online draft Zoning Map, to the definitions Section, to the list of figures and maps, or to the list of tables.
